

Level 2 Award in Principles of Fire Safety

Sample Examination Questions

1. For a fire to start, there must be a source of heat, fuel and
  - A. carbon dioxide.
  - B. hydrogen.
  - C. nitrogen.
  - D. oxygen.

2. Fires can spread through conduction. What is conduction?
  - A. Heat moving through a material.
  - B. Hot air rising from a hot surface.
  - C. Heat waves from a hot surface.
  - D. Direct contact with flames.

3. What is the first thing you should do on discovering a fire?
  - A. Locate the nearest fire extinguisher.
  - B. Raise the alarm.
  - C. Leave the building.
  - D. Find the nearest phone and dial 999.

4. The second stage of a fire risk assessment is to
  - A. identify the fire hazards.
  - B. decide on the level of risk.
  - C. monitor and review the fire risks.
  - D. identify the people who are at risk.

5. Emergency lights must be
  - A. green in colour.
  - B. placed in every room.
  - C. bright enough to allow safe escape.
  - D. tested by the fire and rescue service.

Answers (assessment criteria in brackets)

- 1 D (1.2)
- 2 A (1.4)
- 3 B (3.1)
- 4 D (3.3)
- 5 C (2.3)