

Amair Saleem

Director Safety, Risk Regulation and Planning Department
Strategy and Corporate Governance Sector
Roads and Transport Authority Dubai

Eur. Ing. Saleem graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Aeronautical Engineering from the University of Glasgow, Scotland 1985 and a Master of Science in Air Transport Engineering from Cranfield University, England in 1987. Professionally he is a Chartered Engineer, Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society, Fellow of the Institution of Mechanical Engineers, Chartered Fellow of the Institute of Risk Management and Fellow of the Safety and Reliability Society.

Eur. Ing. Saleem has accumulated over 30 years of international experience in Risk Management, Crisis Management, Business Continuity, Project Management and System Safety having worked in the United Kingdom, Hong Kong, The Netherlands, Austria and Taiwan. Notably, he has led Safety Certification of over USD 45 Billion of railway projects, including Taiwan High Speed Railway, Dubai Metro and Dubai Tram.

Currently he is the Government of Dubai, Roads and Transport Authority Director for the Safety, Risk, Regulation and Planning Department within the Strategy and Corporate Governance Sector. This role includes RTA Corporate responsibility for Safety Certification and Regulation of Railways; Crisis Management; Health, Safety and the Environment (including Energy Management); Audit and Reporting; Accident Investigation, Enterprise Risk Management, Business Continuity, Green Economy and Sustainability. He is directly accountable for daily management of risks associated with USD 30 Billion of Dubai Government investment in Transport Infra-structure and Technology; including 74km of Metro, 11km of Tram, 12,000km of Highways / Roads, 1,500 Public Buses, 6,000 Taxis, Information Technology / Cyber Networks; nearly 200 Electronic Services with over 10,000 employees.

Current Projects include:

- Deputy Project Director on introduction of Autonomous Aerial Vehicle ("Air Taxi") Concept
- Pre-feasibility Hyperloop Certification and Safety Assessment
- Operations Project Manager for Enterprise Command and Control Center (EC3)
- Certification of Dubai Route 2020 Project
- Establishment and Integration of "Sustainability" Elements within RTA