

David Fishwick
*Consultant NHS
Respiratory Physician
Sheffield*

---

David is a Consultant NHS Respiratory Physician in Sheffield with a major clinical and research interest in occupational lung disease. He is also the Co-Director of the Centre for Workplace Health, the Chief Medical Adviser for HSE and also for HSE Northern Ireland. He is also a qualified diving physician.

He is an Honorary Professor of Occupational and Environmental Respiratory Medicine, University of Sheffield, awarded in 2010. His research interests are focussed around the interface between the work environment and respiratory health. He is a member of the British Thoracic Society Specialist Advisory group, sits on the Independent Scientific Advisory Committee for CPRD work, is Chair of the Occupational and Environmental Group of the European Respiratory Society and is an Associate Editor of Occupational and Environmental Medicine.

David Fishwick
*Consultant NHS Respiratory Physician
Sheffield*